

Recognizing the divine Potential of each human Soul, naturally endowed by their Creator with unalienable Rights and wholesome Passions, secured by diligent strivings toward Fulfillment—

We hold these Truths to be self-evident—that all are created Equal, that they are bestowed unalterable Worth, innate and irrevocable by any external Force which seeks to throw off such inestimable Value. Light and transient Causes are not the business of an Individual or a People so endowed, walking with a clear understanding of such an Endowment.

A decent respect to long-held Opinions, Forces, and Situations which oppose such desired Fulfillment requires that the reasons compelling Them to a separation, unto their own Free and Independent standing, be plainly outlined.

Reasons impelling the separation from Influences which seek to diminish or abolish their Worth are to be set forth by Themselves, according to the dictates of their own Conscience.

Nevertheless, let facts be presented here to a candid world, providing a common Program uniting those so impelled in their personal and collective Cause for Independence—

— Owing to the natural Issue of Life from a Woman and a Man together exercising creative power according to divinely appointed Means, we hereby declare the Family to be the basic unit we seek to establish as the foundational structure for supporting a sustainable Society.

— We declare the sanctity of human life and affirm its necessity in enabling and empowering the Souls of men to bring about Happiness for themselves and others, by their obedience to true Principles of Happiness. An environment conducive to healthy individual and family development, together with other beneficial interpersonal interactions, by Venue must be defined, established, and protected. This Environment and its Effects cannot be adequately substituted by subsequent remedial actions, institutions or environments outside that Home which negligently treats these sacred Obligations.

— We declare the sanctity of Animal and Plant life, necessary to nourish the Body and Mind of Man, which should be carefully guarded and used only according to Wisdom and Prudence. We recognize these forms of life exist to bring about Happiness for themselves as well as to provide sustainment for other Forms. We encourage an abiding awareness of the blessings available by divine Providence in this rich Supply, and seek to worship and serve their Creator, while responsibly cultivating and developing this holy Creation as wise Stewards, recognizing our absolute dependence on these Blessings.

— We declare the great importance of instilling a desire for bringing to pass the creative powers of expression innately bestowed upon the children of God which find fulfillment in providing material Goods which ease their Course of life and provide wholesome Diversion. The obtainment of such Items and the pursuit of such Ends must not be by force or by coercion of Influences which seek to entice by dishonest or otherwise harmful means. The economy of exchange in goods which aid the pursuit of a successful Life can and ought to be maintained by virtue of their actual contribution to the betterment of the condition of human Souls, and to the support of Health according to the highest personal, family, community, and national Interests. Seeking such Ends, we declare the impropriety of economic forces based on Consumerism, whereby the tenderest feelings are exploited for selfish and destructive purposes. We likewise declare that the Ways and Means to provide the necessities of life require sustaining eager Endeavor from those who seek to be accordingly blessed.

By so striving to enthrone the Family as the basic Unit of our Society, we hereby declare our Independence from unnecessary and detrimental societal Forces which have long held many under a false sense of hopelessness and darkness, be they political, economic, spiritual, social, in Person or in Public, or of any other manner of Class or category of Despotism.

We declare our own Independence from these, and call upon the citizens of the world to join us and such others as have already found the Courage to do so for themselves.

May we join together in common bonds of solidarity, ever in Humility, Meekness, and Diligence as we seek to bring forth and establish this enabling, ennobling, inspiring

Initiative for Independence.

By our special affirmation, invoking and enforcing our own personal, sovereign, and irrevocable Moral Agency, under the heavenly banner of Liberty by equal Rights and righteous Endeavor, we beseech the blessing of Almighty God in this great and noble undertaking.

May we stand united, freely and forever.
